French - The Company

The French Group has been established for over thirty years. From the company base in Newick, East Sussex, we have completed contracts for many multinational companies, as well as smaller independents and specialist commissions.

Our expertise encompasses specialist and bespoke joinery through detailed shopfitting and finishing, as well as extensive construction and refurbishment.

Design and Build

The French Group are able to offer a full 'Design and Build' service through our professional collaboration with Creed Design Associates. As part of the French Group, Creed Design Associates are able to offer a full interior design service - from conceptual exploration, through design development and planning supervision to full production drawings. This is combined with French Joinery's extensive bespoke shopfitting expertise and project management experience, to create a single point of contact in achieving a prospective clients project goal.

Through their close professional association with Creed, French's are therefore able to offer a streamlined and efficient shopfitting process from concept to completion. The Creed Design website includes a selection of recently completed projects including Pizza Express Heathrow, Purves and Purves Tottenham Court Road and Orange Square Bar in Haywards Heath.

Building Relationships

The French Group are as at home working on small bespoke joinery projects, as big budget projects with multinational companies.

We continue to strengthen our established and valued client relationships, with companies including both large international chains, as well as long-standing independents. Our client base continues to grow, with recent contracts having been undertaken across Britain and Europe.

Purpose Built Joinery

French Joinery Ltd have an extensive heritage of joinery manufacture. From the company's inception in 1971, we have excelled in the production and installation of bespoke joinery solutions. Each of the projects we undertake, regardless of scale or specified budgetary requirements, will be of an equal and consistent high quality. The company continues to build on this foundation of knowledge and craftsmanship, continually striving to create a better solution each time.

However our expertise is not only limited to traditional joinery manufacture alone. We are highly skilled and experienced in the production and installation of bespoke units and finishes, utilising the full range of available materials - from stainless steel, to oak, marble and even concrete.

Whichever material and finish is required, French Joinery will meet the exacting specifications of the designer and client.

Attention to Detail

Our own comprehensive in-house facilities of joinery manufacture and finishing are complimented with a full gamut of trusted professional companies - allowing us to offer a full shopfitting service. As a result, we are able to produce not only high quality bespoke joinery in-house, but also any combination of finishes and manufacture which may form part of the demanding designs we are challenged with.

Within the shopfitting service, French Joinery are able to implement all aspects of a design scheme, working closely with both the client, and also the design firm involved in each individual project.
